

The Value of a LegalEASE Plan

With the LegalEASE plan in place, you pay less in annual premiums than you would for one hour of an attorney's time!

> Child Support

A single parent feels overwhelmed by the rising costs of living. They are unsure how to address the challenges of raising their kids on limited resources. Hiring an attorney seems out of reach due to their current financial situation. A family law attorney could cost anywhere from $200 to $500 per hour—making legal help feel financially impossible.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- They gain access to an attorney who advocates for them in court.
- LegalEASE also covers the attorney's hourly rates.

> Adoptions

A couple dreams of adopting a child but feels daunted by the complex legal process and high costs of adoption services. Knowing the process can range from $2,500 to $15,000, it makes the process financially intimidating.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- They gain access to an experienced attorney who guides them through every step, offering clarity and reassurance.
- LegalEASE covers the attorney's hourly rates throughout the adoption process.

> Domestic Violence

A survivor of domestic violence feels trapped and unsure of how to protect herself and her children from ongoing threats. The legal system feels intimidating and out of reach, with the cost of hiring an attorney for protection orders and related legal matters ranging from $1,000 to $3,000—an overwhelming burden during an already critical time.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- The member is connected to an attorney who helps her navigate the process of obtaining a restraining order.
- LegalEASE covers the attorney's hourly rates for restraining order assistance.

> Wills

A woman's husband has suddenly passed away with no prior estate planning preparations. Because the husband did not have a will, the family is looking at fees and expenses of $2,500 to $6,500 to sort the estate out after his death. There are endless possible complications for your loved ones if you die without a will.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- The attorney's hours for Wills, Trusts, Healthcare Directives are covered.
- Your plan also has a benefit that covers parents and in-laws if they don't have a will prepared or their directives in place.

> Traffic Ticket

A teenager is pulled over for speeding on the way home from a party and receives a costly traffic ticket. Not only that, but insurance is sure to go up! Luckily one of his parents signed up for LegalEASE.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- The teen and parents get access to an experienced traffic attorney that helps reduce the fine and prevents points from being added to their driving record

> Power of Attorney

When a teen turns 18 and heads off to college, their parents can no longer make medical or financial decisions on their behalf without a power of attorney in place. Even though you're still paying the bills, without proper documentation you are powerless during what could be a critical time. Preparing these documents can cost hundreds of dollars per person, and emergency legal help can be even more expensive.

As a member of the LegalEASE plan:

- Power of Attorney documents are covered for each covered family member.
